England-The reasons as given by the Croakers-Mr. Calhoun and Mr. Elmore, and the reasons thy they declined-True reasons why Mr. Pickens declines-The Contracts for Balances for the Post Office Department—Clerk in the State Department —Office Seekers—Mr Korponay's Grand Ball, &c.
The report that Mr. Pickens has declined the Mission to England is very probably true. Assuming to be the fact, the croakers are in full feather now, prophesying all sorts of evil, and determinwith great accuracy the exact amount of oppoon which South Carolina will give to the administration, the trouble which it will cause, and the other which will arise. They look upon it as very omis indeed that the Mission should have been first ffered to Mr. Calhoun and declined by him, then to Mr. Elmore and declined by him, and then to Mr. Pickens and declined by him. This is generally regarded here as evidence that the South Carolinians will not commit themselves by accepting this mission at the hands of Mr. Polk, but intend to hold nselves perfectly aloof and independent, so as to be in readiness to oppose the administration.-My information, however, which is from the best sources, leads to a very different conclusion. I have the best reasons for believing that these refusals have not been dictated by any such reasons as those altributed, but that Mr. Calhoun and his friends entertain the kindest feelings towards Mr. Polk, and have full confidence in him. Mr. Calhoun, it is well known, declined the mission at the instance of his friends, who thought if he retired to his farm, the people would eventually call him thence as their candidate for the Presidency, and because he thought it possible that he might receive instructions, if he accepted, to take a lower tone than he had assumed in his celebrated letter to Mr. King on the subject of the interference of England with the internal concerns of this country. Then it is equally well known that Mr. Elmore declined the mission solely on account of his private affairs being of that nature, and in that condition, that for him to have accepted, would have involved the complete sacrifice of his personal fortunes. In his letter declining the mission, he expressed himself in that earnest, truthful, convincing manner, which forces conviction to the mind, that there can be no mistake on the subject. He said he considered the offer which had been made as the highest compliment which could be paid to him, and expressed his gratification at the confidence in him displayed by Mr. Polk in making the offer, but that its acceptance would necessitate the destruction of his personal fortune, and on that account alone he was compelled to decline it.—These two refusals too, itmust be remembered, were long previous to the reception of the news from England relative to the Oregon Territory, and one for a moment suspected that Mr. Elmore's declination arose from anything but the state of personal affairs. Now, since the mission was offered to Mr. Pickens, the English mail has arrived, with the debate in Parliament, with the declarations of Lord John Russell, Sir Robert Peel, and others, rejspecting Oregon; and Mr. Pickens, and the South Carolinans generally, have seen that the news and comments which have been made by a portion of northern press, to the effect th not been dictated by any such reasons as those atributed, but that Mr. Calhoun and his friends enertain the kindest feelings towards Mr. Polk, and the specimens, to the number of nearly 100, were arranged on tables, and then each of the makers was allowed to make such explanations to the examiners as he thought proper, and to answer such questions as might be asked, none of the other being allowed to interrupt or interfere with the one engaged. The examiners were then to be left alone with the speciexaminers were then to be left alone with the specimens, and were to select from them such as they might think were best suited from their principles, and experiments made, to answer the purposes required by the Department, and all the others were to be rejected. This having been done, the Postmaster General and his Assistants would take the bids for the selected specimens, and would decide according to convenience, usefulness, portability and cheapness, to which they would give the preference.

Mr. Secretary of State Buchanan has appointed Lund Washington to the vacant Clerkship in the State Department, caused by the transfer of the son of Mr. Dickins, the Secretary of the Senate to his father's office at an increased salary. Mr. Washington is, I believe, a brother of the present Postoffice Auditor, and was a reporter on the Globe, and shortly after his brother's appointment as Auditor, he was appointed to a Clerkship of $1400 per annum in his office, whence he is now removed to the State Department.

in his office, whence he is now removed to the State Department.

The office seekers still pester the President almost to death. They go up to the White House, and remain there bothering him without mercy. You cannot drive it into their heads that they only injure their own prospects by so doing, for, though the President is uniformly courteous to all, he has a determined mind, and those who plague him so will find out that they gain nothing by it but—as the Irishman said—a loss.

out that they gain nothing by it but—as the Irishman said—a loss.

Mr. Korponay is about to have a grand complimentary ball given to him here, by those who have experienced his gentlemanly conduct, and his skill and proficiency as a teacher. It is to be given at Carust's, on Thursday evening next, and all the élite of the city will be there, as the matter has been taken in hand by those who do not know the meaning of the word "fail." I understand the Professor intends, very soon, to close his engagements here and return to New York, to make preparations, and proceed thence to Saratoga, &c., for the summer operations. Success attend him, for he is a gentlemanly proficient in his art.

Philadelphia.

[Correspondence of the Herald.]
PHILADELPHIA, May 13, 1845.
The Court of Quarter Sessions is busily engaged in packing away the small rogues with which this city is infested. No case of importance has yet been tried, and to day the Court had before them a case which excited some little interest, arising out of a disturbance at the polls in Spring Garden. The interest in the great race between Peytons Fashion, has reached an intensity which is difficult to describe. Bets are as currently and as recklessly made as they were upon the State of New York going for Clay, on the two days after the election, when the matter was in suspense. The losses and winnings will, it is expected, be immense, and it is believed many persons will be ruined.

will be ruined.

Henry Horn, the new Collector, is in town, but it is said he will not take possession of his office till next Thursday. Dr. Lehman, the Fost-Master, is already in office, and he, as well as Mr. Horn, are beset by applinants.

It is rumored that Calvin Blythe, ex-Collector, is to be First Auditor of the Treasury. I have seen a private letter to that effect from a respectable source in Washing-

Among the rumors, which smack a little of war, is one that orders have been received at the Navy Yard for the completion of the sloop-of-war Germantown, forthwith. This has a semblance of truth from the activity which now prevails in the yard.

Stocks continue to look up to-day, though there was not a great deal of business transacted. There was not a seal of State 5's at the first Board, though between boards, and at the second board, some were sold at an advance of j on the closing sales of yesterday. The opinion is fast gaining ground that the August interest will be paid, if not in tull, at least so near it, that but little will remain to be paid by checks under the late act of Assembly. I have made enquiry from those who have the administration of this matter, and their hopes of full payment are sanguine.

NEW BOWERY THEATRE.

TO THE NEW YORK PUBLIC!!!

THE Subscriber having obtained from Thomas S. Hamblin, Esq., the lease, for a number of years, of the ground on which the old Bowery Theatre was situated, proposes to erect a spacious and elegant edifice, in every way superior in comfort and accommodation to the late Bowery Theatre. The building to be ready for theatrical performances by the lat of August next—arrangements have been made, and the work will commence immediately. An office will be opened at No. 30 Bowness, and strong feeling in favor of re-building the old Bowery, by its countless number of patrons, is well-known to the subscriber and duly appreciated. The Ticket office will open this day—at once affording an opportunity to those who feel destrous of siding the undertaking.

THIS celebrated Painting is now on exhibition at the Gallery No. 449 Broadway. In London it was viewed by upwards of one hundred thousand persons. It is justly considered one of the greatest works of Art—unsurpassed in color and resemblance of a perfectly formed woman.

THE GREATEST CURE EVER YET PERFORMED BY ANY MEDICINE—IT NEVER FAILS.

ASTOUNDING FACTS:

PHILADELPHIA, January 4, 1845.

I hereby certify that when I was about twelve years old, I gradually became deaf in both ears, so that in a few months I found it almost impossible to hear unless in the very loudest tones of voice. I remained in that situation until last summer, a period of eighten years, when I heard of Scarpa's Compound Acoustic Oil. I immediately obtained a bottle which I have used, and am happy to say it has acted like magic and quite cured me. Any one wishing further information of my case, which I think a remarkable one, will find me by calling at my residence, Concord street.

[From the Albany Daily Knickerbocker.]

West Troy, June 3, 1844.

This is to certify that I, Willard Jenks, Proprietor of the West Troy Eachaing Hottel, having been afflicted with deafness in one ear for the last twenty years, and in the other for the last year, and that it was impossible for me to hear the loudest voice, and after trying various remedies without improving my hearing in the least, I was induced to try Scarpa's Acoustic Oil, for the cure of Deafness, and it is with great gratification I am enabled to state that it has perfectly restored my hearing, and will be happy to see any person who wishes for information in relation to my case, at my place in West Troy.

Mesars, Sands—Gentlemen—The following statement of the beneficial effects produced by the use of Scarpa's Acoustic Oil on my daughter, I send you as an act of justice, that others may have positive facts to convince them of its value and efficaces. She was nearly deaf for two years, and could only be made to hear by speaking very loud. I purchased one bottle, which was used according to the printed directions, and before a quarter part of the bottle was applied, a hard substance was discharged from the ear, and soon after the hearing in both ears was completely restored. It is now almost a year since the cure was effected, and it is now proved to be a perfe DOCTOR CORBITT, Member of the University of New All Im*m formed in two minutes, without the least pain, or danger or maning the toe.

Mr. S. Rothkope's invention is quite new, and differs very much from all other operations of this kind, as the Corn, is taken from the very root. After the operation the patient may in mediately put on his shoes, and walk as easily as if he had never suffered from corns. Operated persons may have the satisfaction to take in their hands the Corn, look at it, and keep it. The operation will be performed at Mr. R.'s reaidence. Patients attended withing on, regidence if required. at their own residence if required.

Ladies and Gentlemen will find at Mr. Rothkope's residence a book containing thousands of certificates, from the highest no blity, as well as from the most distinguished medical gentlement in Europe, on whom he operated to their greatest satisfaction.

MEDICAL AND SURGICAL OFFICE.

DOCTOR JOHNSON, 17 Duane street, so well known to the victims of Syphilitic diseases, as the most successful practitioner that New York can conside malady, is still to be found at his additional practice of this destructive and almost or an oastle malady, is still to be found at his adified to reactive Physic and Surgery—that he possess a knowledge of general disease superior to three-fourths of your general "Physicians"—and that his skill in the treatment and proper management of every variety of Venereal Disease and Stricture of the Urethra, is pre-eminent. My patients are not only from every part of the United States, but they come from the West Indies and Canada. I cure, on an average, 600 patients a year. I discountenance quackery in any form, and, therefore, take this method of informing strangers, and persons in the contry where they can find a physician skilled in the treatment of their disease. Every case I undertake I cure, or make so charge. No matter how long you may have Gleet, Stricture, Ulcers upon the body, or in the throat, or nose, pains in the head and bouse of the legs, I will and can cure you, if your case is curatelle. Constitutional Weakness, formetimes called Seminal Weakness, brought on by a secret habit indulged in by y-ang men. I have paid much attention to the treatment of the imbs and small of the back, confusion of intellect, forgetfulness, palpitation of the back, confusion of intellect, forgetfulness, palpitation of the heat, a version to society, are only symptoms of this complaint. If my directions are followed I guarantee a cure. For paid letters, with statement of case, containing $$ for advice, attended to. With the exception of Dr. Cooper, of I i Duane et al. Dr. Johnson, of Ir Duane attent, is the only regular educated Physician and Surgeon who advertises in this street.
